

Trials Change Lives

Listen to the podcast

“Clinical trials are a lynch pin in how GPs make medical decisions. Trials will always be needed to help us to do what is best for our patients by making medical decisions that are evidence-based, and safe”

Dr Carol Sinnott,
GP Research Fellow,
University College Cork

Clinical Trials at the GP